Long-Time Fan Emcees 'Colgate Theater' Program

Handsome Steve Dunne is finally to a full-time job in on KTTV's "Colgate Theater" program of recent MGM epic films shown every Friday at 8 p.m., on Channel Eleven.

Why? Because he has been a "movie fan" ever since he was a boy. "When I came out of a movie, I WAS Cary Grant or Humphrey Bogart or Clark Gable," says Steve. "Of course, this was when I was a kid, long before I ever dreamed I'd be in show business."

But Steve was destined to appear in many facets of show business. He's been in radio, motion pictures and TV.

A native of Northampton, Mass., Steve worked as a $19.25-a-week typist after high school. On this salary, he saved enough to enter the University of Alabama, where he studied psychology. He paid his tuition by assisting Dr. Donald Ramsdell, a psychologist, and when his savings ran out he did janitorial work.

His father wanted him to be an accountant and Dr. Ramsdell urged him to be a psychologist. The dilemma was solved when he met the manager of a Tuscaloosa, Ala., radio station and got a job announcing. This led to work as an extra announcer in New York, and Worcester, Mass.

Shortly thereafter he married Vivian Belliveau, his childhood sweetheart, and landed a staff announcing job at WOR, New York.

Then came soap operas and quiz show, and soon Hollywood became interested in his work.

After several bids, the Dunnes headed for Hollywood where Steve had roles in such films as "Lady Possessed," "Above and Beyond," "I Married a Witch," "10,000 Bedrooms" and "Home Before Dark." Between pictures he worked in summer stock and continued in radio before branching out into TV with roles in top shows.
